Judge Kimball Lays Down the Law for Dealers to Obey.

B. & O. R. R. MATTER AGAIN

Engineer Smith Substituted for Supt Alvey, and He Pleaded Not Guilty. Application Made for a Writ of Habeus Corpus and Higher Courts to Pass Upon It.

There were few prisoners in Judge iKmbail's dock when court opened this morn-ing, and it took only a short time to dispose of the uninteresting cases.

Abraham Larkin, a colored wagon driver, was charged by Humane Officer Rabbit and Policeman Strobman with cruelty to ani-

Mr. Rabbit testified that he was sent for to shoot the animal, but upon exam-ination he found that the horse was simply starved to death. He learned from other men around the stable that Larkin never fed it.

William Washington, who kept a horse near the stable, testified that Larkin kept the horse two weeks without giving him enough food to last two days.

"Why didn't you feed that horse, Lar-kin?" inquired Judge Kimbail.

"Judge, lemme tell you somethin' bout dat hoss. Dese people don't know nuffin about it. I feeds my hosses twice a day, an' I gib dat anima I two pecks ob oats ebery

"Where do you buy your feed?"
"At Mr. Murphy's, corner ob Fourth an"

"Do they know whether you fed him?"
"Yas, sah."
"I'll continue this case until tomorrow, and have the feed store people here." RAISED A ROW.

Edward Brooks, colored, was arrested in Dyer's alley by Policeman Harrison, charged with disorderly conduct, and he pleaded not guilty.

"This man was in the alley, your honor, drunk and raising a disturbance. He kept up his disorderly conduct after he was ar-

"Come around here, Brooks," said the udge. "What have you got to say about "Judge, I was in de alley, but I warn't makin' no 'sturbance. A lot ob others wuz hollerin' an' singin', but when de officer cum dey run, an' he took me."

"Ten dollars or thirty days." Messrs. Ford & Graham and Mr. E. G. Davis, the proprietors of dairy lunch rooms who were charged several days ago with violating the health regulation requiring all dairy lunch rooms to keep posted on the wait the name of the wholesale dealer from whom they obtained their milk, were in court to hear Judge Kimball's summing up of the case.

The judge held that all places where the The judge held that all places where the sale of milk furnished the principal part of the business should have the sign required by the health regulations.

He said that these cases had simply been brought to establish this fact, and if the firms would comply with the regulation, he would suspend sentence. Both parties agreed to accept the order of the court and the case was dismissed.

agreed to accept the order of the coast and the case was dismissed.

In the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad case the name of William P. Smith, an engineer of the road, was substituted today for that of Superintendent William Alvey, charged with failing to keep a flagman at the grade crossing on R street, in Ecking-

ADMITTED THE FACTS. The defendant and the attorney for the company appeared before Judge Kimball and admitted the facts alleged in the information, but entered a plea of not gally, in order to sue out a writ of Judge Kinthall imposed a fine of $10, and the defendant with his attorney proceeded to the office of the attorney for the District Thomas where a writ of halseas corpus was granted, and on that the defendant was released.

PITCHER HOFFER A BENEDICT. The Orioles' Great Twirler Married in Cedar Rapids.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Nov. 21.-The hon of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vanous in this city was the scene last night of a large and happy gathering of the friends of the family and William Hoffer, to witness his marriage to Miss Emma Vanous.

The marriage was a surprise to all except intimate friends, as Billy declared his intention to circumvent the newspapers and his friends. The bride is a beauful and most estimable young woman, and the attachment had its beginning long before Hoffer became popular in Baltimore and other league cities.

Lewis Esker and Miss Ida Hoffer, sister of the groom, were groomsman and bridesmaid, respectively. The home was tastefully decorated, and after the ceremony an elegant wedding supper was served. The fully decorated, and after the ceremony an elegant wedding supper was served. The basehall enthusiasts and Hoffer's friends who had not been bidden to the ceremony organized a surprise, and at the proper time were admitted to the house by one of the family who was posted on the programme, and their congratulations were of the most emphatic kind. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer will make Cedar Rapids their home, an arrangement which is appreciated by those who have watched with pride Mr. Hoffer's rise from amateur ranks. Hoffer's rise from amateur ranks.

SAN FRANCISCANS COMING.

They Will Raise Heaven and Earth to Get the Convention.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.-A delegation of nineteen leading citizens of California of nineteen leading citizens of California will be in Washington within the next week to fight for San Francisco as the next place to hold the national Republican convention. They are George A. Knight, Gen. R. A. Freiderich and A. G. Booth, who will represent San Francisco; Gen. Chipman, of Red Bluff, the north, and H. H. Osborne, of Los Angeles, the south. National Committeeman De Young was named as exofficio delegate.

Probable Lake Wreck.

Probable Lake Wreck.
Chicago, Nov. 21.—A dispatch fram Charlevoix, Mich., last night stated that Jishermen at the Point two miles north of there, reported wreckage coming ashore.
One jacket life-preserver was marked "L.
G. Corning." Parts of a vessel's ganwale and cabin were also picked up. s There is no boat named L. G. Corning on the lakes, but it is possible the wreckage might be from the schooner Ida Corning, which carries a crew of seven.
